CBRE recruits Phill Rockliff to head its Pacific Asset Services business

Sydney, NSW (7 June 2010)

In a recruitment coup, CB Richard Ellis has appointed highly experienced property professional Phill Rockliff to head its fast growing Pacific Asset Services team.

Mr Rockliff has more than 20 years experience in the property industry, including directorship roles at Colliers and Jones Lang LaSalle prior to being appointed as Senior Asset Manager at Valad and more recently as Toga's General Manager of Property Investment.

CBRE President & CEO, Australia & New Zealand, Tom Southern said the appointment was a coup for CBRE given Mr Rockliff's depth of experience, significant contact base and track record of managing best in class teams.

"Asset Services represents 25% of CBRE's revenue in the Pacific and we have aggressive plans for continued growth," Mr Southern said.

"As a result we have decided to grow our leadership team and we are confident that Phill will be a strong and effective leader for our Asset Services business."

In his new role as Regional Director, Asset Services, Mr Rockliff will be based in CBRE's Sydney offices at 363 George Street

In tandem with Mr Rockliff's appointment, CBRE has promoted Sam Cuccurullo to the newly created role of Executive Managing Director of Asset Services for the Asia Pacific region. In his new role Mr Cuccurullo will drive CBRE's regional Asset Services strategy.
