CBRE recruits David Elam to its expanding Global Corporate Services team

Melbourne, VIC (12 March 2010)

CB Richard Ellis has recruited industry veteran David Elam to join its expanding Global Corporate Services team, based in the Melbourne office.

Mr Elam is a highly experienced operator with some 27 years experience in the Melbourne commercial and industrial markets.

CBRE GCS Director Anthony Ludeman said Mr Elam had been appointed to drive the development of the GCS Industrial business unit and build on the existing client base, which included names such as Coca Cola Amatil, Pacific Brands, Jeld-Wen and Onesteel.

“David will be a strong addition to the Global Corporate Services team, given his wealth of knowledge and contacts built over many years in the industry,” Mr Ludeman said.

“David will focus on harnessing the existing industrial knowledge of our operators around the country to drive growth in this sector the market.”

Mr Elam was most recently the Principal of Terrain Property in Melbourne and has previously held senior roles at companies such as Jones Lang LaSalle.
