High level recruit to boost CBRE's Valuation & Advisory Services business

Brisbane, QLD (12 February 2010)

CB Richard Ellis has appointed Tristan Gasiewski as a Director of its expanding Valuation & Advisory Services business based in the Brisbane office.

Mr Gasiewski commenced his property career with CBRE in 1999. In 2003 he transferred to the firm's London office where he undertook various roles before returning to Australia in 2006.

In his most recent role, Mr Gasiewski served as a Senior Portfolio Manager at boutique property funds management group Ray White Invest managing a number of unlisted property trusts.

CBRE Senior Director, Valuation & Advisory Services, Tom Irving said the appointment was a strategic move to further expand the group's highly regarded Valuation & Advisory Services business.

"Tristan's broad skill set will provide tremendous benefits to our clients and will further enhance our service offering," Mr Irving said.
